

The Drivers Edge Tech Inspection Form

As a participant in this high performance driving event, you are responsible for the safety of your automobile and should know the conditions of all items on the list. By participating in this event you realize and accept full responsibilities for all risks taken. The following is a minimum list of items that should be checked a qualified certified mechanic with-in 30 days prior to the event. A tech safety verification may be performed at the event to check these items if any are in question; however, it is not a comprehensive technical inspection. The Drivers Edge and tech inspectors assume no responsibility for the safety of your automobile. Any vehicle that does not pass the following tech inspection will not participate in the event and drivers will forfeit 100% of the event cost. Owners with new cars that have less than 15,000 miles and have NOT been in an accident can inspect their own vehicles. Note: if you do not have the knowledge or experience to inspect your own automobile, you are required to have it inspected by a qualified mechanic.
